DETAILED ACTION

15. The Examiner acknowledges papers the response of 7/08/2003.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

16. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

17. Claims 1-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. In newly amended claim 1 the new matter is "and said component fibers are not knitted or woven together". In claim 20, "non-textile material" is not supported. This is new matter.

It is the Examiner's position that no express support is found in the instant specification for the negative limitation in claim 1. Applicant's assertion that the support for the negative limitation in claim 1 is found in the drawings as filed is not persuasive because drawings can be used to explain the claimed invention but drawings do not teach or explain to exclude components.

Applicant's arguments regarding the solid support found in the drawings and the original specification on page 11 are not found to be persuasive because the Examiner finds the claimed invention to be explicated on pages 4 and 5 of the instant specification.

In claim 16, there is no clear support evidenced for the phrase "without being interlaced or interlocked" this new matter since no clear support is found in the instant specification.
